Our Values

We are continually searching for new and better ways to serve our customers. To accomplish our vision, we commit to the following values to guide all our decisions and behavior; among us and with all those we serve:

Integrity

Do the right thing, always.

Operational Model

We mainly work two operational models for residential and commercial claims' handling

Task Model

Managed Claims Model

We handle the claim from the initial quality contact to determine cause of loss and to set the appropriate reserves, all the way to settlement and final voice to voice contact with the insured (including any required correspondence under state law), just to have the claim closed in your system by your staff.
